Experience	DagensPS / Rlvnc Media Stockholm Growth Marketing Manager January 2024 - Present • Won the 2024 Swedish SEO Award (News Media) by transforming technical SEO into a scalable growth engine, increasing Google Discover traffic by 161%, growing DagensPS to over 1 million weekly readers and Rlvnc Media to over 3 million readers across its news platforms and newsletters. • Led the marketing measurement strategy by defining KPI frameworks, event tracking, data layer specifications, and experimentation (A/B & MVT) standards, while implementing GTM and Server-side Google Tag Manager (sGTM) to improve first-party measurement, attribution accuracy, and reporting. • Developped analytics data pipelines using Python, SQL, and API integrations to collect, transform, and deliver analytics data into interactive Tableau and Looker Studio dashboards to support decision making. • Applied NLP and LLM-powered workflows (including RAG) for content analysis and metadata enrichment, improving GEO/AEO readiness while giving editors clearer performance insights, more consistent metadata, and faster access to relevant content. • Expanded monetisable ad inventory, contributing to 125% YoY advertising revenue growth by improving personal data consent coverage, increasing opt-in rates by ~12%, reducing opt-outs by ~18%. • Optimised native campaigns delivery speed by 15% by reformulating bidding logic and validating improvements through a structured series of A/B tests, boosting ads display, placements and bidding price. Husman Hagberg Stockholm Performance Marketing Consultant December 2022 - November 2023 • Implemented SEO, SEM, and CRO strategies for Sweden's real estate market, using search behaviour, competitor activity, seasonal demand, and housing-market trends to drive qualified lead generation and digital visibility. • Managed end-to-end Google Ads and Meta Ads campaigns, reducing customer acquisition costs by 20% while increasing qualified lead generation through audience segmentation and continuous optimisation. • Implemented a KPI measurement framework to monitor ROAS, CAC, CPL, CTR, conversion rate, and lead quality, improving campaign optimisation and budget allocation. • Built automated GA4 and SQL data pipelines enabling faster reporting and data-driven optimisation through interactive Looker Studio dashboards. Life Fitness USA-Remote Marketing Manager Consultant December 2020 - November 2022 • Led the launch and marketing strategy for a U.S. fitness brand operating in MENA region, working closely with local executives and U.S. stakeholders to launch the brand, execute go-to-market and business growth initiatives. • Supervised and mentored the marketing team while fostering cross-functional collaboration across sales, operations, and commercial teams. Delivered training on SEO, social media, digital marketing best practices, and emerging industry trends. • Directed a €550K annual marketing budget across paid media, PR, partnerships, SEO, and brand initiatives, optimising investment to maximise growth during the COVID-19 pandemic, while adapting strategies to changing public health regulations. • Negotiated and closed 30+ strategic partnerships and corporate agreements during the COVID-19 pandemic, creating new revenue streams while maintaining strong market visibility in a highly disrupted industry. ILT Education Stockholm Marketing Specialist December 2019 - November 2020 • Piloted CRM across the full customer lifecycle in Hubspot, building automated customer journeys, segmentation, and personalisation across email and SMS to support onboarding, retention, reactivation, and loyalty program. • Carried out a cross channel audit across social, technical and content SEO, paid search, and website funnels to understand content reach, user behaviour, and traffic quality, using API based data collection and analytics tools. • Leveraged product updates, feature launches, and seasonal moments to shape customer communication, testing messaging and cadence through A/B tests and experiments. • Executed paid campaigns end to end across Google Ads, Meta Ads, and LinkedIn Ads, covering budget ownership, campaign setup, and post campaign analysis, supported by BI reporting and performance insights. Concentrix Paris Market Insight Specialist April 2014 - April 2019 • Delivered competitive market intelligence for the French telecommunications sector, leveraging SQL, Excel, and Power BI to transform complex market data into executive-level strategic insights. • Partnered in an agile, cross functional setup with marketing, analytics, and IT teams to build a web based benchmarking tool, combining market research with Salesforce CRM data to strengthen competitive analysis and commercial decision-making. • Established scalable competitive intelligence reporting by consolidating tracking data, market research, competitor benchmarking, and CRM into executive dashboards, enabling continuous competitor monitoring, market trend analysis, and data-driven strategic decisions.
